WIN A ROCK POOLING KIT

Rock pools are perfect places for wildlife explorers. As the tide goes out it leaves watery worlds amongst the rocks that are full of interesting animals and plants. The NHBS Educational Rock Pooling Kit helps you investigate and identify some of the curious creatures you encounter. For more information about the kit visitnhbs.com and search for "rock pooling".

We've got five kits to give away. For your chance to win, we want you to design the perfect rock pool a shore creature of your choice. Draw us a picture and tell us why your rock pool would be a good place for your animal to live. Are there plenty of places to hide? Is it safe from hungry predators or full of delicious snacks? Is it full of colourful plant and animal life? It could be a crib fit for a crab or a posh pad for a prawn – it's up to you!

WIN A SIGNED COPY OF 'THE ADVENTURES OF BABY BAT'

In an enchanting little village called Great Snoring, a barmy family of bats live! In an old oak tree, at the end of a tidy garden, Baby Bat lives with his parents; Mummy Beryl Bat, who's a little batty, and Daddy Brian Bat, who's an inventor of amazing time travelling rockets and other exciting things. Discover what Baby Bat and his friends get up to in this beautifully illustrated book.

We've got FIVE books to give away to the winners of our batty quiz. Can you tell us which of these is not a real UK bat?

- a) Greater horseshoe bat
- b) Brown long-eared bat
- c) Natterer's bat
- d) Chatterbox bat
